

SYZ Asset Management¹ awarded Best Fund Manager at the Citywire Spain Awards

Geneva, 28 November 2017 - SYZ received the “Best Fund Group 2017” award on account of strong and consistent performance of its OYSTER Japan Opportunities Fund. The strategy benefits from the portfolio management and stock research expertise of Mr. Joël Le Saux and Ms. Yoko Otsuka, respectively.

On 14 October 2017, the Citywire Spain award recognised asset managers that have been managing investment strategies in an outstanding manner for a period of 3 to 7 years. The OYSTER Japan Opportunities Fund is one of a number of high-conviction and alpha-focused strategies managed by SYZ Asset Management. Launched in March 2005, the fund was singled out for its strong track record. Over the last three years, the fund has returned +14.6% annualised. Since Joël Le Saux’s (lead Portfolio Manager) tenure starting on the 1st of February 2013, the fund has returned +18.2% annualised compared to 16.4% for the Topix Net TR JPY Index. The fund’s robust stock selection process and flexible investment style that allocates dynamically among both high quality, domestically-driven stocks as well as global macro-sensitive stocks has allowed it to be a consistent 1st decile member of its Lipper ranking peer group along with being rated 5 stars by Morningstar². Moreover, last May, Joël Le Saux was rated “AAA” by Citywire.

The OYSTER Japan Opportunities Fund is registered in twelve European countries: Austria, Belgium, Germany, France, Italy, Luxembourg, Spain, Portugal, Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland and the United Kingdom.
